

Roof canopy has been setback to the Northern facade to allow ample natural light to the town square.

The new town centre will create a 'hive of activity' for Leopold and the region and as such our conceptual design was to create a building reminiscent of the bee hive by using structure referencing honeycomb.

Tenancy canopies have a reference to the existing Leopold centre.

