

A light open roof canopy continues blurs the boundaries between inside and outside creating a lively open mall area promoting pedestrian activity.

Light colours and reflective materials provide ample natural light to mall area.

Areas of glazing at node points such as entry to major tenancies and food court etc. guide pedestrians through the building.

